CALL TO WORSHIP

Ken and Katharine DeYoung

Leader: As we gather on this holy day,

People: we pray for the posture of servants of God:

Leader: for openness, so we may be surprised by God's grace;

People: for humility, so we may be changed by Christ's compassion;

Leader: for discernment, so we may hear Christ calling us;

People: for courage, so we may take the steps to answer.

Leader: Let us worship the Living God,

People: the One who is our reason for praise.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Ken and Katharine DeYoung

Leader: Because of such great mercy, God is ready to forgive all the ways we fail to live in faithfulness. Relying on that mercy, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Trusting you does not always come easy when each day we are faced with the ugliness of the world. We do not believe that love conquers fear. We are convinced that power comes through weakness. We cannot conceive how you could heal us. Forgive our lack of faith, O God, and renew our trust in you, for we would be disciples of Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: If the Lord kept count of all our sins, who could stand? But with God there is forgiveness; Christ gives us peace.

People: Thanks be to God!

RESPONSE OF THE PEOPLE

“The Gloria Patri”

Traditional

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

TIME FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

SONG

“Give Thanks”

Smith

Give thanks with a grateful heart
Give thanks to the Holy One
Give thanks because He’s given Jesus Christ, His Son

And now, let the weak say, “I am strong!”

Let the poor say, “I am rich!”

Because of what the Lord has done for us

SCRIPTURE LESSON

2 Corinthians 8:7-15

⁷ Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

⁸ I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. ⁹ For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— ¹¹ now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. ¹³ I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between ¹⁴ your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. ¹⁵ As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

SONG

"Your Grace is Enough"

Maher

Great is Your faithfulness, oh God, You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart,
You lead us by still waters into mercy, And nothing can keep us apart,
So remember Your people, remember Your children, Remember Your promise, Oh God

Your grace is enough, Your grace is enough, Your grace is enough for me.

Great is your love and justice, God our maker, You use the weak to lead the strong
You lead us in the song of our salvation, And all Your people sing along
So remember Your people, remember Your children, Remember Your promise, Oh God

Your grace is enough, Heaven reaching down to us, Your grace is enough for me. God, I see Your grace is enough. I'm covered in Your love, Your grace is enough for me, for me.

OFFERING

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Pastor: O God, in these summer days, in this season of ordinary time, we ask that you would make our lives verdant with growth. We long for your restoration and your healing. We long for you to make all things new. We lay before you all our hopes, desires and fears, knowing that you lovingly receive them all.

For the places in our lives, our church and our society that are dry and thirsty, we pray for healing waters. For the places in our lives, our church and our society that are flooded with to-dos and overwhelmed by injustice and inequality, we pray for a receding of the waters, that we would be empowered and emboldened to act with justice, love and peace.

All this talk of fire and flood raises our awareness of the parts of our nation preparing for wildfires and hurricanes this summer. We pray your protection on all people living through the effects of climate change. We pray your courage and discipline to be able to make changes that will prevent deep suffering in the future.

For the needs of this community, we pray now, offering, in the silence of our hearts, the names of those in our midst who are suffering and need your sustaining love.

Shape us into people of bold hope that rest firm on the promise of a new heaven and new earth. Enable us to serve you wherever we are planted, not only in the everyday tasks at hand, but in the larger visions of justice, love, and peace for which we work.

We pray all of this in the name of Jesus Christ who taught us to pray, saying:

Unison: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

THE CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

The Lord whom we love, whom we worship and adore,
We will serve throughout this coming week. He it is who binds us together,
And He it is who sends us apart, to be God's people, be God's people. Amen.
