HYMN

"My Shepherd Will Supply My Need"

No. 172

1 My shep-herd will sup - ply my need; Je - ho - vah is his name.
2 When I walk through the shades of death your pres-ence is my stay;
3 The sure pro - vi - sions of my God at - tend me all my days;

In pas - tures fresh he makes me feed, be - side the liv - ing stream.
one word of your sup - port - ing breath drives all my fears a - way.
O may your house be my a - bode, and all my work be praise.

He brings my wan - dering spir - it back when I for - sake his ways,
Your hand, in sight of all my foes, does still my ta - ble spread;
There would I find a set - tled rest, while oth - ers go and come;

and leads me, for his mer - cy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.
my cup with bless - ings o - ver - flows; your oil a - noints my head.
no more a strang - er, or a guest, but like a child at home.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Terry Sakuda

Leader: Confident that God is always for us and not against us, and that grace sets us free to be honest with ourselves and with each other, let us pause now to examine our hearts and confess our sin to God.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most gracious God, Giver of Life, who loves and forgives us, we confess we are burdened by excess baggage as we travel the roads you send us down. We are caught up in how others perceive us, rather than rejoicing in the life of the Spirit. We measure our worth by how productive and successful we are rather than how faithful we are. When we run from one need to the next, interrupt our busy-ness, and lead us to still waters, restore our souls, and free us to walk in right paths for your name's sake.

SONG & SILENT MEDITATION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Terry Sakuda

Leader: Jesus invites the thirsty to drink from his well. Jesus invites the hungry to dine at his table. In Christ, we are forgiven, we are filled, we are made whole. Let us hear, accept and embody this Good News.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

³⁰The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. ³¹He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. ³²And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. ³³Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. ³⁴As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

⁵³When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. ⁵⁴When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, ⁵⁵and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.
