SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew 28:16-20

Nathaniel Parker

<sup>16</sup> Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup>When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Madelyn Sevigny

Leader: Creating God, we marvel at your work; the way you shaped this world from a formless void into our beautiful earth; the way you separated day from night to mark our lives and insist on our need for rest; the water and oceans brimming with life that mark the boundaries of our land, the distant horizon, and the limits of our imagination; the beat of our hearts, the inhalation of our lungs, reminding us that we are here because you created us, we live because you love. Hear our thanks and praise, Creator, for your wondrous work.

Redeeming God, we needed a teacher, a prophet, a guide through the wilderness, a savior. You blessed us with Jesus and redeemed us through his death and resurrection. Your son is a lamp to our feet. Grateful for the way Christ saves us every day, hear our thanks and praise, Redeemer, for your wondrous work.

Sustaining God, you fill us with inspiration, a fire burning within us to seek your Word and your way. You advocate for us throughout the ages, gift us with unique abilities, and lead us to bear healthy, spiritual fruit. Holy Spirit of God, you call us together for community and communion. Hear our thanks and praise for your wondrous work and hear these prayers from our community:

We pray for those who are ill and for their caregivers...

We pray for those who grieve...

We pray for those who are isolated and alone...

We pray for those who are overwhelmed and exhausted...

We pray for those who are lost and afraid...

In your mercy, Beloved God, hear the prayers of your people. Now, as the Body of Christ, we pray as Christ taught us:

All: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

If you would like to privately share a concern, thanksgiving, or request for healing, please come to the Stephen Ministry banner on the east wall of the Sanctuary immediately following the service for individual prayer with a Stephen Minister.
